

Recent studies show that chronic back problems result from chairs that do not recline. Since more people, more frequently, use desk chairs than any other seating, the reclining WINDSOR Desk Chair is the perfect back-saving antidote. Add to this the "Just Right" Headrest™ which gently cradles the neck and head, plus the fact that IMG designs all their chairs from the inside out for maximum body comfort, and you have perfection — you have the WINDSOR.
